

Myra Prosper

Paralegal/Legal Assistant

Myra Prosper is a native of Navasota, Texas and is a Paralegal/Legal Assistant for Texas A&M Technology Commercialization (TTC). She has an extensive legal background with 25 years of legal experience with 15 of those years in higher education. Myra is a former employee of the Texas A&M University System's Office of General Counsel where she served for 10+ years as a Legal Assistant working in various practice areas.

Prior to joining TTC, she worked for The Texas State University System's Office (TSUS) of General Counsel where she primarily managed the drafting and review of Sam Houston State University contracts. Prior to joining TSUS, she supported the University of Houston System's Office of General Counsel focusing on sponsorship for permanent residency for University employees, and auditing and processing of outside counsel attorney invoices.

Myra received her Bachelor of Applied Arts and Sciences from Sam Houston State University where she was consistently on the Dean's List, a member of various honor societies and graduated Cum Laude. She received her Paralegal certification from the University of Texas at Austin Law School's Paralegal Program, and her Associate of Applied Science from Blinn College, where she has a Mediation and Dispute Resolution certification. Myra is currently pursuing a Master of Legal Studies from Pepperdine University's School of Law and has Master credits in Public Administration from Sam Houston State University, and Theological Studies from Houston Baptist University.

Myra and her husband Jeffery are the Pastors of a local church in Navasota and in her spare time, she enjoys attending live concerts, family gatherings, exploring different cuisines, and researching her family's history.
